Remuneration and Benefits

The salary range for this role is £50-£60,000 per annum plus benefits. What's best though is that you get the opportunity to carry out an interesting and challenging role in a growing company. You'll also be part of our friendly and supportive team, with fantastic career prospects and a great working environment.

We strive to ensure we offer a fantastic place to work so there are lots of perks in being part of the iomart Group including a half day on your birthday, breakfast/fruit provided daily, a hot roll on a Friday and lunch 'on the house' once a month! We also have Sharesave and childcare voucher schemes in place.

We value long serving employees and their loyalty is recognised and rewarded through extra holidays, private medical care and life assurance. Career development within the iomart Group is extremely important to us and once you've got a year's service under your belt, you can set your sights on a new role in one of our many locations across the UK.

Training & Development

As you can gather, we have a relaxed and friendly working environment but don't be fooled; you will be working with some of the country's best talent and greatest technical experts. We want our people to thrive, prosper and to leave work every day feeling valued and that they have made a difference. Talented, motivated and creative people lie at the heart of our success so we invest heavily in our people and their professional and personal development through technical certification, our online training portal and our Management and Leadership Development Programme.

We look forward to hearing from you.
